

Happy Dalit Day 15 April 2020 – Morgana, Netherlands

I like many other people have been at home for the last 2-months as a result of the COVID-19 lockdown. I was thinking about how to celebrate my coming birthday when I suddenly has this idea; to use the money I would normally spend on cakes or a meal out with family for those for those less fortunate. I quickly got in touch with one of my contacts in India – Deepak Kumar – and asked him how I could help the Dalits and how I could donate to the 'Peace4Dalit Foundation'. Within minutes he sent me instructions. He also asked me for a photo of myself and before I knew it, he had made a flyer to promote the fundraiser. 'Happy Dalit Day'

This was how I announced it on my Facebook timeline..

This year I will be celebrating my birthday .. at home like so many other people who are affected by the Corona virus. So... I decided to organise a fundraiser for a group of people who I know are really suffering from the hardship this crisis has brought. I made a donation to the 'Peace4Dalit Foundation'. It would really be fantastic if you would also join me in raising funds for them. Please donate via my PayPal account: email:sieth017@planet.nl .. "Happy Dalit Day", I will then transfer the funds to Peace4Dalits.

Many thanks, bright blessings, Morgana ❤️❤️❤️

Within 16-hours I received a fantastic message and the next day I posted this on my timeline:

"What a wonderful birthday I had yesterday! So many best wishes.. thank you ❤️❤️❤️
The best thing however was hearing how my gift to the Peace4Dalits Foundation was, in no time, transferred into delivering food packages in Nepal.

At 4pm I received this message "Job is done ❤️ Your Happiest Birthday in Nepal NP In 16 hours: Netherlands to India, India to Nepal: Job Done 🙏🙏🙏🙏 Netherlands IN NepalNP"

Here are a couple of photos. I am so grateful to Environmentalism Deepak and his team for making this possible!

Thanks too to everyone who has donated, from NL, USA, Poland, Australia - every single EURO/ $/ is welcome. If you would still like to make a gift please go to this link: paypal.me/morganaofmona.. Thanks again you are all stars! ❤️🌟❤️

I continued the fundraising for a few days and then On April 29, 2020 I made a second transfer with the money I had raised for my birthday. This time the focus was on the elderly. On May 3, 2020:
