Shamanic Healing Wheel, open to the public. Celebrating Women's Day in an interfaith vision. Seeking healing and harmony between the sacred feminine and the sacred masculine within us, through shamanic journeys to the sound of the drum. we had the presence of more than 15 people who shared their stories and found answers in this healing work.

A C.C. Caminhos da Terra project - A Healing Wheel per month, open to the public. With the objective of seeking integration between the sacred feminine and masculine, thus collaborating for the rescue of dignity in the relationship between men and women, opening the dialogue about violence and femicide. Where does this energy come from? How to cure this disagreement?

CC Para el Diálogo

Venezuela

Within the framework of the celebration of Interfaith Harmony Week, members of CC para el Dialogo were invited by the Embassy of Japan to participate in the celebration of its Cultural Week.

Meditation and training workshops on interreligious and intercultural dialogue were held by Rev. Marina Tirado who announced the work that the URI network is doing in the world.

CC Quineroes

Venezuela

Some members of CC Quineroes present in Trujillo accompanied the procession of the Virgin of La Paz through the main streets of the city, within the framework of the celebration of the Week of Interreligious Harmony.

This activity allows to share and promote cycling sport for all ages, from young people to seniors. It was pleasant to talk about why this devotion and accompaniment, the number of years they have been doing sports and also thanking through cycling the kindness of Mother Maria.

Cycling helps people not only maintain a healthy body, but also mentally and spiritually connect with nature and lead to feeling better. You can have conversations, pleasant moments and talk with different people who, although with different creeds, are in search of their personal balance.
